FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Introducing AutoHireAi.com for Car Dealers Only! The solution to the ongoing challenge of hiring good employees in the auto sales industry. With 15 years of advanced artificial intelligence and machine learning, AutoHireAi.com provides data-driven insights that are a game-changer in auto sales recruitment.

AutoHireAi.com has revolutionized the way car dealers hire their sales force. Gone are the days of ineffective psych tests and guesswork. Our AI technology can secure new hires with the best potential for success in the car business, as well as identify the traits and behaviors of your top-performing salespeople. This allows us to develop targeted training programs and strategies to improve the performance of your entire sales team.

At AutoHireAi.com, our expertise goes beyond sales recruitment. Our highly experienced management recruiters specialize in placing quality candidates in positions such as General Manager, Sales Manager, Controller, Service Manager, and Fixed Operations Director. We understand the unique demands of the automotive dealership business and know how to help you succeed.

Our AI technology is combined with human judgment and intuition to ensure that we bring you the best possible candidates who will thrive and last in your organization. We are confident that our technology will help you build the best sales force you've ever led.

*"We are excited to bring AutoHireAi.com to car dealerships across the country," said Jennifer E. Miller, CEO of AutoHireAi.com.
